Salon K Privé in Berlin-Mitte, a whole world of elegance and sophistication, will present six exclusive shows, inspired by the vibrant present and the rich cultural history of Berlin, starting on November 14.
Further shows will be staged on 15, 21, 22, 28, and 29 November.

Salon K is a unique brand of art-entertainment.

Deriving from a private salon, so far only for select visitors, Salon K Privé will present these six exclusive shows with art,

dance,
songs,
literary readings
and poetry, alongside dinner
champagne,

a truly unique experience to live.

Salon K Privé opens a door to people who enjoy aesthetic pleasure and seek social interaction and new perceptions, giving them the opportunity to free their senses from everyday stress, be part of a creative and dynamic energy, enjoy the sensuality of their body.

Salon K was founded in 2010 by the performer, choreographer and director, Patrick King and the dancer Johan King Silverhult, who were inspired by the freedom and elegant decadence of Berlin in the 1920s and '30s.
Salon K, King's brainchild, aims at bringing a new vision of performance, incorporating various artistic languages including
dance,
acrobatics,
music,
musical theater.

The exclusive shows of Salon K Privé last around 3 hours, offering entertainment of the highest artistic level
- as all the artists are from prominent institutions such as the Paris Opera, Le Cirque du Soleil, and The Stuttgart Ballet - stimulating conversations and innovative dinner.
